

Key Historical Figures

William Wilberforce - a politician who n influential figure in the abolition of the slave trade, starting his campagin in 1787.

Elizabeth Fry - in the 19th century, her charity work in the time of the Industrial Revolution improved conditions for imprisoned people

Lord Shaftesbury - had an important role in improving working conditions for poor children in the Victorian era

Mary Seacole - aided the British army during the Crimean war. She made and used natural remedies to help cholera sufferers and funded her own passage to Turkey to help those fighting.

Greta Thunberg - Born in 2003, Greta is a Swedish climate activist who is known for challenging world leaders to take immediate action.

Emmaline Pankhurst and Emily Davison - English Suffragettes who fought for votes for women in Britain the early 20th century.

Malala Yousefzai - Born in 1997 in Pakistan, Malala is a Pakistani activist for female education and the youngest Nobel Prize Laureate.

Marcus Rashford - an English footballer who is also known for his charity work, including convincing the government to provide free school meals during the holidays.

HOPE AND HEROES

Key Geography

Settlements - a collection of dwellings forming a community; a place where people live

Grid references- this allows someone to mark a place on a map using horizontal and vertical lines called 'eastings' and 'northings'

Key Scientists

Alexander Graham Bell - he is credited with inventing the first practical telephone

Thomas Edison - these allow someone to mark a place on a map using horizontal and vertical lines called 'eastings' and 'northings'

Key Vocabulary

Resilience – the ability to recover readily from adversity and difficulty.

Identity – the qualities and beliefs that distinguish or identify a person.

Legacy – anything handed down from the past.

Sacred – someone or something which is shown great respect.

Diptych – a work of art divided into two panels or sections.

Unique - being the only one of its kind; unlike anything else.

Perseverance - persistence in doing something despite difficulty or delay in achieving success

