

Websites for Early Years Learning

<http://eyfs-spotlight.lgfl.net/>

Curated content by topic. Can be accessed for now at home without a log in

<https://www.busythings.co.uk/lgfl-login/>

Packed full of fantastic early years content for EYFS –Camden pupils have access as part of their LGFL subscription, usually you need the USO login but currently no log in required

<http://www.poissonrouge.com/> (£10 for a family subscription)

Lovely activities to explore - very opened ended, counting, colours, letters and so on. Especially suitable for nursery or SEND

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/cbeebies/games>

Lots of interactive games, stories, printables for preschool children. Includes information and ideas for Grownups. A good place to start if you are new to using the internet with small children.

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/cbeebies/stories/>

Delightful traditional stories such as Cinderella, Jack and the Beanstalk, Little Red Riding Hood and more.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/cbeebies/shows/alphablocks>

letters of the alphabet tell stories and make words using phonics. Play the learning game, watch clips and print colouring pages.

<http://www.topmarks.co.uk>

Topmarks Education's Resources a simple search engine for educational resources.

<https://www.phonicsplay.co.uk/>

Free during school closures

<http://www.ictgames.co.uk/>

Free educational games aimed at children between 5 and 8 years old.

<http://www.primarygamesarena.com/Years/EYFS>

Some cross curricular activities to explore