

Reading

Snuggle up with books every day.

It might be a fun idea to make a cosy little reading den.

- Check out... <https://classroommagazines.scholastic.com/support/learnathome.html> for a different online reading book each day.
- Mo Willems, one of our favourite authors is doing a different drawing each day.
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RmzjCPQv3y8>
- Oliver Jeffers is reading one of his stories each day.
https://www.youtube.com/results?search\_query=oliver+jeffers
- Listen to favourite stories being read by celebrities.
<https://www.youtube.com/user/StorylineOnline>
- These websites are good to help with early reading too.
<https://www.roythezebra.com/>
<https://www.teachyourmonstertoread.com/>

I'm a Reading Detective

I think about what makes sense.

I read on and re-read.

I get the first sound on the tip of my tongue and think what it could be.

I break the word into chunks.

I search the pictures for clues.

