

READING

Magical Mirror Monday Challenge

Your mission today, Reading Detectives, is to choose a book from home or online (fiction, non-fiction or poetry). As you read it, write down all the words you can find in the book that have the following graphemes (the letter or letters that make the sound) from this week's Phonics Sound Family.

-er as in germ

-ir as in skirt

-ur as in church

Chilli Challenge

For each grapheme, write one more word (or more than one, if you're keen!) that YOU think of which contains that sound (it doesn't have to be in the book that you chose). Write the words below and draw a picture to match, if you like.

Thumping Tuesday Challenge

Learn our Common Exception Words by playing a game of Roll and Read. Roll the dice and then choose and say one of the words in that row. If you don't have a dice, you can use a coin or a counter of some sort and simply roll it onto the Roll and Read board and read the word it lands on. Happy Rolling and Reading!

	door	floor	poor	climb	most
	a	the	I	do	to
	child	children	wild	both	every
	we	be	he	me	she
	great	break	steak	pretty	beautiful
	no	go	so	by	my

Take a Bonus Point if you put the word into a Sassy Sentence!

Windy Wednesday Challenge

Make your own Roll and Read board using words that contain our graphemes from our Sound Family this week. Play your game with your adult or brother or sister. Bonus Point if you can put the word into a Sassy Sentence!

Thirsty Thursday Challenge: Remarkable Reading

Choose any book you like and then choose and complete a Remarkable Reading Activity for that book. Have fun!

Fabulous Friday Challenge: Star Readers!

I was so impressed with your thoughts and ideas last week as Poetry Critics that I've given you another poem to listen to this week. I can't wait to hear your thoughts on this one, my Creative Critics!

(a) Listen to this poem by Joseph Coelho:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=r2EPfmgbOC0>

(b) Now, in our Poetry Grid below, write and draw TWO things you like about this poem, ONE thing you dislike and what other poems, stories or ideas it makes you think about.

 I like...	 I dislike...	 It makes me think about...

What would you do if all the world were made of paper?

I would fold up Y1 and take you all on a magical mystery tour of my favourite places in Scotland!

Draw a picture of what you would do/make if the whole world was made of paper. If you would like to challenge yourself, you can write a sentence underneath to explain your drawing.
