

Topic/History: Magnificent Millo Zaldarriaga

This week in Topic/History, we are going to learn about the Marvellous Musician, Millo Castro Zaldarriaga. Millo was a little like Ossiri - she wanted to play an instrument but, at first, she wasn't allowed to do so and this made her very sad. However, her story has a happy ending! Listen to her biography here:

Then and Now

Below are pictures of drummers from four different decades in History. You are going to arrange them in order from the drummer who was first to drum in history to the one who is the most recent. Remember what we learned in history last term about the colours of different pictures and how that can sometimes give us a clue about how old they are. Look also at what the different drummers are wearing and what their drum kits look like. I've given you their names and some hints with each picture. Number the pictures 1-4, with 1 being the drummer you think came FIRST in History and 4 being the drummer you think is still drumming TODAY. You can also cut out the pictures and arrange them in order, if you like. Happy detecting!

(This is our Millo)

(Above is the drummer Sandy West, who played with a band called The Runaways - all the people in this band were women.)

(This drummer is Honey Lantree - she was the drummer (and only woman) in a band called The Honeycombs. Do you think she was playing at the Same time as Millo, earlier or later?)

Explain to someone who has never heard of Millo who she was and why you think she was so amazing and an important historical figure to learn about. Use the Sentence Starters below to help.
