LO: I can identify a key historical figure

This week we are going to learn about the Amazing Rosa Parks. Rosa believed strongly that all people should be equal. In the time she lived, this was not always so, and Rosa was very brave in standing up for her beliefs. Her actions made some great changes to our world. Watch and listen to the video below, based on a book about Rosa.

Tuesday 30th June 2020

LO: I can identify a key historical figure and explain why she is important

LO: I can discuss my feelings

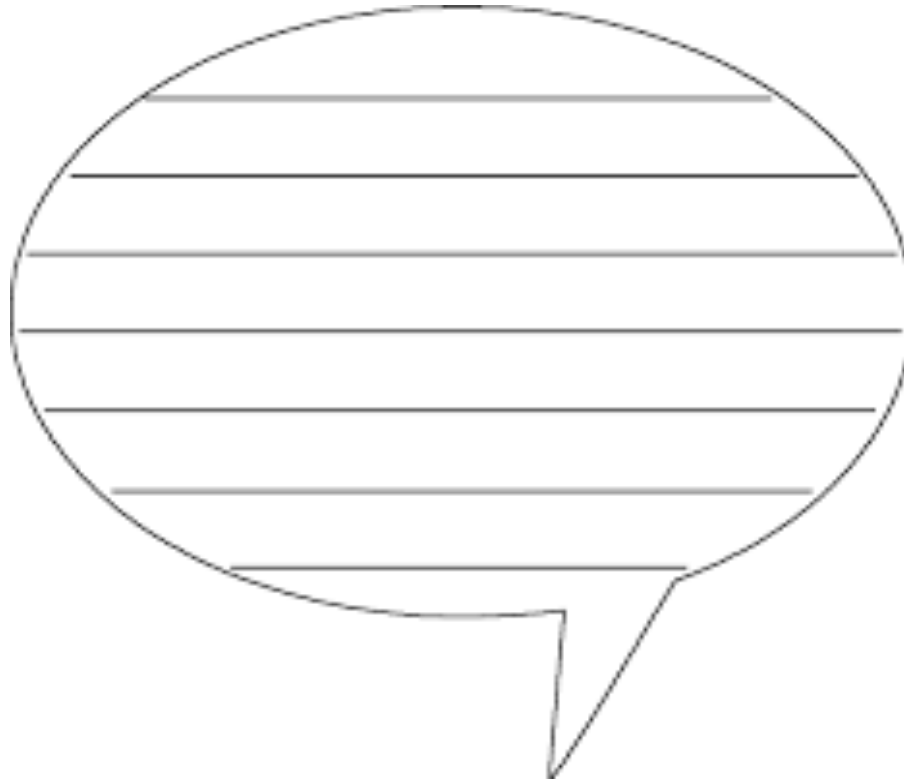

Let's discuss...

1. Do you have any questions for me? Words or ideas that you don't understand?
2. Why is Rosa such an important person?
3. What do you think about what Rosa did?
4. Why is important that we are all treated equally?
5. Have you heard or seen anything recently that reminds you of the ideas we have been discussing?

LO: I can ask a question to an historical figure

If you could ask Rosa Parks a question, what question would you ask her? Why?

Write your question in the speech bubble above.

LO: I can identify what is important about me

Let's think about you. What things are good about you? What good qualities do you have?

What positive things do you do to help others?

Draw a picture of yourself and then write positive words to describe you around the picture.

LO: I can identify and discuss what is important about other special people in my life

Now, I want you to choose another person in our class.

What things are good about them?

What things do they do to help other people?

1. Draw a picture of that person OR take a picture of that person.

2. Write positive words about that person around the picture.

(My example is on the next slide. I think you'll agree with my choice)
