

Remarkable Reading Adventurers

1. Choose one or more of the Remarkable Reading Activities below:

Design and draw a new front cover for our new English poetry book, Commotion in the Ocean.

Take any book you like from your Book Bag OR look at the poem, Pirate Pete, below. Find and write down as many words in that book or poem as you can with these phonemes:

s//l//er/or

Draw a new/different picture for the final page of your favourite story and write a new final sentence to go with it.

2. Go to The Children's Poetry Archive and listen to the poem Pirate Pete (<https://childrens.poetryarchive.org/poem/pirate-pete/>) Draw a picture of Pirate Pete, thinking about how the writer has described him in the poem. You can listen to the poem again and read along with the words on the next page. Have fun, Reading Adventurers!

Remarkable Reading Adventurers

Pirate Pete

Pirate Pete

had a ship on the sea had a fish for his tea had a peg for a knee and a tiny little parrot called . . . Polly

Pirate Pete

had a book with a map had a skull on his cap had a cat on his lap and another little parrot called . . . Dolly

Pirate Pete

had a trunk full of treasure had a belt made of leather had a cap with a feather and another little parrot called . . . Jolly

Pirate Pete

had a patch on his eye had a flag he would fly had a plank way up high and another little parrot called . . . Molly

So Pirate Pete

and the parrots four they sailed the world from shore to shore - collecting gold and gifts galore.
And that's their tale - there is no more!
