

Narrative Poetry

Watch 'The
Dragon Who Ate
Our School'

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/clips/z6cvr82>

A narrative poem is a poem that tells a story.

So a narrative poem will include:

- Characters
- Plot

Narrative poems often rhyme.

They are often read out just like a story.

Do you think 'The Dragon Who Ate Our School' is a narrative poem?

12/1/21

L.O: I can recognise the features of a narrative poem

Today, you are going to annotate the poem. If you don't have a printer, you can write out what you notice on a piece of paper.

Read through 'The Dragon Who Ate Our School'.

Note whether:

- There is a plot
- Any characters
- Any rhyming words
- Any repetition
- Any rhythms
- Anything else you notice!

Tomorrow, your task is to learn the poem so if you have time today, make a start on learning it!

13/1/21

L.O: I can perform a poem

*Today, you are going to learn and perform 'The Dragon Who Ate Our School'.
You do not have to learn the whole thing – see how much you can learn in an hour!*

You may want to get a sibling or adult to perform it with you.

You may want to include gestures.

You may want to think about where you perform it.

You may want to use a prop.

It's up to you! Have fun!

14/1/21

L.O: I can plan a poem

*Today, you are going to plan your own narrative poem.
Fill in the planning grid to help you. Remember, you may want to look back at 'The Dragon Who Ate Our School' to help you!*

Feature of a narrative poem	My ideas
Storyline
Characters
Rhyming words I could use

15/1/21

L.O: I can write a poem

Today, you are going to write your own narrative poem.

Use your planning grid from yesterday to help you.

Your 'Spicy' option is to come up with your own structure.

I have included a 'Mild' and 'Extra Mild' frame on the next slide that you could copy out and complete to help you come up with your poem!

Have a look at 'Extra Mild' before starting to see how you can use 'The Dragon Who Ate Our School' to help you.

With Mild and Spicy, you can choose what your poem is about and what happens!

15/1/21

L.O: I can write a poem

Mild

The day the _____ came to _____

They _____ the _____,

And _____

So

They're undeniably _____

They're absolutely _____

The _____ who _____

The _____ who _____

They _____ who _____

15/1/21

L.O: I can write a poem

Extra Mild

*The day the dragon came to _____
They ate the _____, the _____ wall,
And, _____, the roof and all,
The _____, _____, and entrance hall,
And every _____, big or small.*

*So
They're undeniably _____
They're absolutely _____
The dragon who ate _____
The dragon who ate _____
They dragon who ate _____*