

Make sure you've got your two pieces of work about your identity from Thursday and Friday last week!

Keep them next to you so that you can use them to help you with the task today.

Get some paper. Divide your page in half then draw some lines across to make enough letters for your name. You'll need one box per letter!

Now start looking through your planning work and seeing if there are any ideas which match up with the letters in your name to add onto your grid. You could also add general words which you could use to make a sentence... Here are some examples:

I can gather ideas for a poem.

Fill in a few ideas for each letter in your name on your planning grids. You only need single words, not sentences.

Remember to choose words which are relevant to your identity or words you think you could use to help you make a sentence!
