

Using apostrophes

Can you remember the two types of apostrophe?

Possession

Ms Hanfling's book

Contraction

doesn't

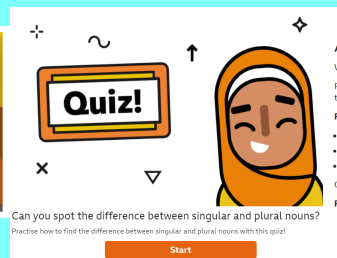

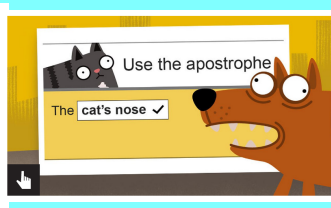

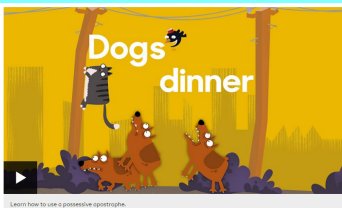

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/articles/zmq9kmm>

Warm up:

Follow the link at the top of this page.

First watch the video, then try the three quizzes.

Activity 3
Write these plural words out and add an apostrophe for possession.
Remember when adding an apostrophe for possession to plural words you add the apostrophe after the s at the end.
For example: cows = cows'
• goats =
• brothers =
• snakes =
Choose one of the words and write a sentence using it.
For example: The cows' barn was smelly.

First watch this

Then do activity 1

Then activity 2

Then activity 3

Thursday 14th January 2021

*Write out each sentence below, deciding whether or not it needs
an apostrophe.*

I can use apostrophes for possession.

1. Billys heart ached as he thought about Spark being all alone.
2. The dragons roared when they realised they were trapped.
3. Suddenly, the girls heard a crash - it was a rock troll!
4. The children gathered needles to put in Billys backpack.
5. The dragons hearts were finally released from the cages.
6. Billy threw the poisonous needles into the dragons eye.

Thursday 14th January 2021

I can use apostrophes for possession.

Answers

1. Billy's heart ached as he thought about Spark being all alone.
2. The dragons roared when they realised they were trapped.
3. Suddenly, the girls heard a crash - it was a rock troll!
4. The children gathered needles to put in Billy's backpack.
5. The dragons' hearts were finally released from the cages.
6. Billy threw the poisonous needles into the dragon's eye.