

Friday 15th January 2021

I can publish my work.

Today we'd like you to publish your acrostic poem. Choose either the poem you wrote all about you, or the one you did about someone else in the class and write it out in your best handwriting. Then use coloured pencils or felt tips to decorate it. You may like to make the starting letter for each line colourful.

Look at the next slide for some ideas of how you might choose to decorate your work.

Looking forward to seeing them!

