

Save the Animals!

Write a newspaper article

Protect our wildlife

- What's been happening to wildlife during lockdown?

- There's a filmclip and an interesting article here:

- <https://www.theguardian.com/environment/2020/may/20/rare-uk-wildlife-thriving-in-lockdown-reveals-national-trust>

- What should we do to keep protecting endangered animals?

- Read this article to find out more: <https://findingnature.co.uk/endangered-animals-britain/>

Write a newspaper article

1. Think of one activity or change that we can do to help a protected species. It can be something that is already happening or something brand new.

2. Imagine a perfect world where everyone did your activity to help an endangered animal. What do you think would happen to the species?

3. Write a newspaper article. It will take place in the future, when your activity or change has made a positive impact around us.

DID YOU KNOW?

One person alone can make a difference.

Pat Smith, a 70-year old grandmother, spent an entire year clearing plastic from 52 beaches on the south coast of the UK to help keep them clean.

Ben McCarthy, the head of nature conservation at the National Trust, said: “It has only been eight weeks but wildlife seems to be enjoying the breathing space. With less traffic and fewer people, we’ve heard deafening levels of birdsong and seen famous monuments and formal gardens colonised by wildlife.”