

Look at the pictures on the following pages and discuss these questions with someone at home:

What can you see?

If there were sounds for this picture, what would they be?

Why do you think the artist made this picture?

How do you think the artist was feeling when they made it?

How do you think the artist wanted the viewer of the picture to feel?

How does the picture make you feel?

Which is your favourite? Why?

How would you describe the artist's style from looking at these pictures? Think about colours, lines, subject (what they paint), focus points.

Choshi in the Province of Chima
by Katsushika Hokusai

Kakinomoto no Hitomaro
by Katsushika Hokusai

Sarumaru Daiyū
by Katsushika Hokusai

The Great Wave off Kanagawa
by Katsushika Hokusai