

LO: I can read information from a scene

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3MTKWnxzqvM>

LO: I can read information from a scene

LO: I can read information from a scene

LO: I can read information from a scene

Observe

Wonder

Infer

LO: I can read information from a scene

LO: I can read information from a scene 	Observe
Wonder	Infer

LO: I can describe a scene

What can you spot here?

LO: I can describe a scene

LO: I can describe a scene

What other unusual sights might the camera have captured under the waves?

Draw your own scene and write a setting description.

Please only continue if you are not coming in to school at all.

LO: I can describe a scene

How long has this camera been capturing the finders? How do you know?

LO: I can describe a scene

Would you keep the camera or would you send it back into the ocean?

Write a paragraph to explain your reasoning.

LO: I can describe a scene

Now the camera is back in the ocean.

If the camera could talk, what would it say of its adventures?

LO: I can describe a scene

Dear Diary,

You will not believe what happened to me today....once again i was gently laid out on the warm sandy beach and was just starting to relax when...

LO: I can describe a scene

Dear Diary,

You will not believe what happened to me today....once again i was gently laid out on the warm sandy beach and was just starting to relax when...

Can you write your own camera diary entry?

What will you include?

How will we know when events happened?