

LO: I can use an image to create a narrative.

Feel free to get creative with your writing here....

You can choose either of these pictures as your stimulus.

What might have happened to this watery city?

Are there still people living there?

Is it a special place?

Where is this bottle? Who sent the message?

What does it say?

I saw her and then she was gone, I heard her whispering for me to follow. It only took me a few seconds for me to decide...

Can you continue the story?

You might use ideas from our ghost story writing lessons.
